President's Letter... by Audrey Borja

How can we be into November and December already? Can you believe we will be a Battlefield Boogie Club's for two years on November 15. We have come a long way in developing a club that provides dancing, friendships, and open doors to social events both local and a far. Thanks to our membership that work hard to support our club. Of course, we still need each of you to share in planting and harvesting of good times. Yeah!

Since our last newsletter, our members have attended shag events in Richmond, Virginia Beach, Northern Virginia, and of course Charlotte and Raleigh, N.C. As I write this, there is a party in Mooresville, N.C., called the Cyclone party. It is one of the largest parties that you would ever attend...with about 1,000 folks. The club members treat everyone royally with some of the best food and pampering by the club members that you will ever get on the east coast. If you did not know about it, try to attend next year. You will be glad you did.

We had a general membership on October 24. Although we had a slight attendance, we managed to stir up some good discussion and introduce some good ideas for future consideration. Reports show that our club is financially sound for its size. Growing pains are always challenging. But, to share in our bounty our holiday party on December 12, 7:30, at the Loft will be a treat for the BBC members. Yes, free food! While members will be free for our planned buffet, guests will be $5.00. We will have a menu that should please us all. Members will provide desserts. -- So, mark your calendars and plan to join your fellow members for this festive occasion.

The 2006 election for club officers will be closed as of December 12 at the Loft. The nominating committee sought additional candidates but currently it looks as though all board positions are unopposed. Please let us know if we can nominate you to run for office. We will introduce the candidates once again at the Loft on November 22. We are still discussing whether or not to have an election if all candidates run unopposed. We will have a ballot available as we ask for each of you to vote on two referenda: 1) a charity that BBC will adopt; and 2) your choice for our BBC club night - Tuesday or Thursday (this was surveyed about 1

As we look forward to another year, we will have more parties, social events, and joint ventures with other dance clubs. We have a lot to look forward to. Our dance program is consistently turning out new shaggers while embracing dance improvement for overall membership. We had some Halloween fun at the Loft. Several folks wore costumes and brought candy. With our dance lessons, lots of laughs and lots of dancing to the tunes of our extraordinary DJ, Jim Rose, made for a festive evening. And, were you there? We are fortunate to have each other to share this enjoyment. We are thankful!

I want to stress that we need you to volunteer to help the club. The hardy few are keeping the club going and although it may seem like we are tireless, we need you! As the club grows and gets involved in more activities and events, the more we need members to share in the prosperity of what we feel is your social venue. I encourage you to let us know what you would like to help with in the club. We have committees listed in the newsletter that are anxious to hear from you. --Also, we will have a suggestion box placed at the Loft for members to make suggestions and/or comments about the club. We welcome your input!

So, have a wonderful Fall, Y'all...a warm and cozy winter....and high spirits! Stay in step with the fun- filled times with your BBC friends! We will see you at the Loft and let the good times roll~

Audrey Borja, President

BREAKING BBC Election News...

This year all seven of the BBC board members have decided to return to office. Other members were welcome and asked to run however, despite the fact that the nominating committee contacted many BBC members, no one else was interested in running. Apparently the club is happy with the existing board!

During the general membership meeting held on Oct 24th, nominations were also open to the floor, but no one new was nominated or agreed to run therefore, since the current board would be running unopposed an election is not necessary—it would cost the club time & money to mail ballots, etc. so the board is returned to office by default.

If you have questions or comments regarding any board position or would like to become involved in a committee on the club, please contact a board member. See you on the dance floor!!!

We extend a warm welcome to the following new BBC members:

Jan keen
Bob Mckisson
Barry Myers
