President's Letter...Audrey Borja

Hello everyone...BBC Happy 20th Anniversary....Unreal! -- And oh my, we are working our way to spring and the fun times that good weather brings us. As for winter, in January, I went down to Myrtle Beach, S. C. to the SOS mandatory meeting for representatives of all shag clubs. Some of the news at the meeting included discussion about the increase in SOS cards. They will cost $45 per person when purchased at the beach and $40 when purchased at the local clubs. We certainly hope that this will not affect the sales. The SOS event 3 times a year counts on the sales to be able to provide the festivities and spirited get-a-way for folks. The discussion about the spring SOS included announcing the theme of the parade which will be "Taking us Back to 1995". This should make for lots of creativity with the floats and marching groups from lots of shag clubs. I hope you can plan to attend sometime during the 10 day period from April 24 – May 4. –Another exciting part of the meeting was when they announced the 2025 Shag ICON winners. There were 5 names called, and one of the names was mine! Yes, I was so surprised and delighted. The ICON committee will award the winners during the spring SOS. I will share the highlights of the honor and excitement with you in my next letter.

ternate nights when we are not dancing at the Moose Lodge. We had refreshments, a game, great music and lots of dancing. Please see the pictures in this newsletter. Thank you to Mitch in our club who orchestrated the game and got us going. –We have discovered that the dance attendees like a little divergence in the evening and it brings them out in a playful way.

So, toward summer, we are going to have another Joint Dinner/Dance with our cousin - Northern Virginia Shag Club. It will be held at a location between the two home bases of the clubs. This combined gathering of the best folks in our region guarantees to be a fun time. More information will be coming out for you and you do not want to miss it!

--Take a look at the attached flyers and one for October to attend the event in Lexington, Va. to groove to the "Rocking the Beach" band. Yeah! Save the date!

In closing, embrace your strength and dance when you can! Let the Good Times Roll!

So, our BBC is thriving and starting off the year with renewed vigor. We will have a membership drive to attract new members this year. We are still dancing at the Moose Lodge in Fredericksburg, Va. the critical few that are regular attendees at our dances bring the best energy and caring to our club which helps us sustain. I do not know where all of the dancers go, but we are trying to capture them. We have added line dances to our evening of dancing and it seems to appeal to folks. Our shag lessons are popular, but to keep their interest has been a challenge. Is it lazy, or is it a lack of discipline....who knows. We are looking for the magic.

We had a fantastic Valentine Day party at the Highmark Brewery where we have been dancing on al-
